Don't forget to wear your conference t-shirt on Thursday if you purchased one!

The Michigan Home Visiting Conference provides professional training and continuing education opportunities for adults, which is not always suitable for children. Babies six months and younger in their parents' arms are welcome at the conference in any of the meeting or dining rooms. Parents traveling with children over 6 months old should arrange for other accommodations. Private space will be available for nursing people. Strollers will not be able to be accommodated in the meeting or dining rooms. Conference staff will be monitoring this rule prior to all conference sessions. If your family members or your own child care providers are traveling with you, click here to view the Traverse City Tourism website that includes a number of fun activities. Due to conference budget considerations, family members will not be able to join you in the meeting rooms or for conference provided meals. Conference meals are provided for the registered attendee only. There are a variety of dining options for any family members who may be attending the conference with you within Grand Traverse Resort.
